6. Court Order

The order is the written record of what the court directed at that hearing — dates, directions, and conditions if any. Only the signed/uploaded order text counts; oral impressions can be wrong.

WHAT NORMALLY HAPPENS

- You obtain the order copy from the court or the eCourts/court website as available.
- You read operative lines first — dates, directions, and anything you are asked to do.
- You match the order to your journey: does it fix a next date, ask for something, or conclude the request?

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

Next procedural stage — comply with directions and track the next date.

Watch for: Certified vs website copy differences and the exact operative wording.

BEFORE HEARING

Carry acknowledgement + prior orders + one-page request note

Courts work fast. A single page stating what you are requesting and the current status saves time.

General guidance

General process literacy

BEFORE HEARING

Collect the signed order copy and highlight dates

Only the order text counts. Oral memory fades — the highlighted copy is your reference.

General guidance

General process literacy

AFTER HEARING

Convert every direction into a dated task with two reminders

Missed compliance dates create fresh complications. Two reminders is the minimum that works.

General guidance

AFTER HEARING

Never invent a checklist item. Items flagged "Needs verification" must be confirmed with the court / registry.

05 • GLOSSARY

Court terminology, in plain words

Q Search: cause list, affidavit, adjournment...

Cause List

काँज़ लिस्ट

Source-backed

The daily list showing which matters will be called before which court.

For you: You hear it because your matter's position and date come from this list.

"Check serial no. 42 in tomorrow's cause list."

Listing

लिस्टिंग

General guidance

Placing your matter in the cause list for a date.

For you: Until a matter is listed, it will not be called.

"The matter will be listed on Monday."

Mentioning

मेंशनिंग

Needs verification

Briefly bringing an urgent listing request before the court, as permitted locally.

For you: Used when something cannot wait for the normal listing cycle.

"Mention the urgency at 10:30."

Adjournment

स्थगन / तारीख बढ़ना

General guidance

The hearing is moved to another date.

For you: Check the next date and what the order says you must do before then.

"Matter adjourned to the 18th."

Affidavit

शपथपत्र

Needs verification

A written statement confirmed on oath, used to place facts before the court.

For you: Many applications need facts stated on affidavit, not just plain paper.

"File the facts by affidavit."

Vakalatnama

वकालतनामा

Needs verification

The document authorising an advocate to appear for a party.

For you: Without it on record, an advocate generally cannot act for you.

"Vakalatnama is on record."

Annexure

अनुलग्नक

General guidance

A document attached in support of the main application.

For you: Courts refer to annexure numbers during hearing — keep them ordered.

"See Annexure A-3, page 12."

Registry

रजिस्ट्री

General guidance

The court office that receives, checks and processes filings.

For you: Most filing objections come from the registry, not the judge.

"Registry has raised a defect."

Defect / Objection

कमी / आपत्ति

General guidance

Something missing or incorrect in a filing that must be fixed.

For you: A defective filing is not placed before the court until cured.

"Remove the defect within the time given."

Order

आदेश

General guidance

The court's written direction at a stage — dates, instructions, conditions.

For you: Only the order text is authoritative — not summaries or memory.

"As per the order dated 4th..."

Notice

नोटिस

General guidance

A court communication asking a person to appear or respond.

For you: A notice always carries a date and a required action — find both first.

"Notice issued for the 12th."

Summons

सम्पन

General guidance

A formal court direction to appear or produce something.

For you: Ignoring a summons has consequences — note the date and purpose immediately.

"Summons served for next week."

N

Interim Application

अंतरिम आवेदन

A request for temporary direction while the main matter continues.

For you: Bail requests are often heard as interim requests within a proceeding.

"Interim application for release pending trial."

Needs verification

Stay

रोक / स्थगनादेश

A direction pausing a proceeding or action until further orders.

For you: If a stay is mentioned, find exactly what is stayed and until when.

"Further proceedings stayed till the next date."

Bail

जमानत

Release from custody on conditions the court sets, while the case continues.

For you: Bail orders always carry conditions — find each one and its consequence for violation.

"Released on bail on furnishing a personal bond of Rs. 50,000."

Anticipatory Bail

अग्रिम जमानत

Protection sought before arrest, apprehending arrest in a matter.

For you: It is sought before custody, so the applicant's cooperation duties matter greatly.

"In the event of arrest, the applicant shall be enlarged on bail."

Structured AI extraction agrees — stage "order", medium confidence · via groq

Based on the text provided, this appears to be a court order. It mentions dates (7 January, 2026, 19.12.2025, 08.09.2025). It appears to relate to the "Court Order" part of the journey. Please verify with the current court record.

⚠ Scope note: this document appears to come from a High Court or the Supreme Court — outside the V1 journey (MP District Courts). Stages and next steps below are general guidance only; verify against the actual court's procedure.

🌟 WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

The text is a written court order. It records the judge's decision on an anticipatory-bail application filed under the 2023 BNSS. The order grants bail, sets a personal-bond amount of ₹50,000, and lists conditions the applicant must follow (appear for interrogation, no threats to witnesses, no travel abroad without permission, no repeat offence). It also says the order will stop if the applicant breaks any condition.

This is the order stage of the case. The next step is to obey the directions in the order and keep track of any upcoming court date.

What you cannot safely infer: the factual guilt or innocence of the applicant, the final outcome of the trial, or any other pending applications not mentioned in the order.

Verify with the signed order and the court registry.
